Nanocurcumin Extract

Nano Curcumin: curcumin particles transformed into smaller or nano particles of curcumin, to help deliver the curcumin component to the exact target cell. A pure concentrate of golden goodness in powder form, that fortifies your immunity and has many other spectacular benefits.

Powerful immune booster

Powerful anti-inflammatory

Powerful antioxidant

Powerful anti-viral

The therapeutic anti-inflammatory power of turmeric has been known for centuries, but more expanded in the last two decades have explained that this potential of turmeric is due to curcumin (diferuloylmethane).

The active ingredient, the curcumin, the bright yellow coloured compound in turmeric shows potency to regulate numerous transcription factors, cytokines, protein kinases, adhesion molecules, redox status and enzymes that have been linked to inflammation.

Curcumin acts through multiple pathways and on different targets to limit the inflammatory response, and to prevent the extension of inflammations. As the medical world now prefers multi targeted therapies and a holistic approach in the cure of a disease, curcumin comes in the most superior place.

The Bio-C is a most bio-available form of Natural Amla with Ascorbic Acid

Bio-C

Get your daily dose of the most effective and powerful Vitamin C, obtained from the best possible natural source - Amla.

As per preventive and regenerative medicine one vitamin that is essentially crucial for the body that can help prevent serious manifestations of all age related issues like small cell type anaemia, atherosclerotic plaques, pinpoint haemorrhages, bonefragility and joint pain ,poor wound healing and frequent infections, bleeding gums and loosened teeth, muscle degeneration, rough skin, easy bruising... and even more, when taken regularly with the daily diet is Vitamin C.

Vitamin C also known as ascorbate and ascorbic acid is unfortunately not synthesised by humans and therefore has to come from food or supplementation

Oranges are well known for their Vitamin C content – but in comparison a tiny Amla - (Emblica Officinalis) - the Indian gooseberry has approx 20 times the content of Vitamin C as compared to an Orange.

Our philosophies behind the development of this formulation has been the extensive benefits in all preventive health benefits offered by Amla as well as a small added Ascorbic Acid form of Vitamin C leading to the combined benefits of this combination for maintaining health and laying the foundation for overall good health.

Mag Complex

MAGNESIUM is a cofactor involved in more than 300. Enzymatic functions that regulate diverse biochemical reactions in the body including :

Protein synthesis

Muscle and nerve functions

Blood glucose control

Blood pressure regulation

Energy production .. and more

The MAG COMPLEX is a specially calibrated formulation with four different types of Magnesium to help overcome most chronic health issues caused by its rampant deficiency in our daily diets. This combination includes Potassium and Vit B6 working in perfect synergy to help derive the maximum benefits from Magnesium supplementation.

KEY INGREDIENTS :

Magnesium Citrate – This form of Magnesium combined with citric acid – causes an osmotic effect in the digestive tract – helping water enter the intestine making easy passage of stools and bowel movement. Magnesium Citrate also helps in Nerve and Muscle functions, balances out calcium levels thus reducing the risk of kidney stones, helps the absorption of calcium in the bones, (along with Vitamin D) and prevents irregular heart beats.

Magnesium Oxide - has the highest content of Elemental Magnesium - 60%! – helps maintain blood Magnesium levels. Magnesium Oxide has an antacid, laxative, effect and helps improve mood disorders, reduce depression and anxiety.

Mag Complex

Magnesium Aspartate: An excellent bio available form of Magnesium—helps address poor glucose metabolism, reducing migraine attacks, helps alleviate asthmatic issues, helps with better mood and in depressive disorders.

Magnesium Bisglycinate: The mineral Magnesium is bound with the amino acid Glycine – again a very highly bioavailable form of Magnesium. This helps improve sleep quality, an excellent muscle relaxant and helps address issues of leg and muscle cramps and spasms, reduces anxiety and fights pain. Helps decrease PMS symptoms, and is critical for Thyroid health to help in the better conversion of the thyroid hormone T4 into T3.

Potassium Aspartate: Potassium combined with the Amino Acid Aspartic Acid, helps in the regulation of mineral balance, levels of acidity, blood reasure and neuromuscular function.

Vitamin B6: A critical Vitamin involved in many functions in the body this Vitamin among all its other benefits, is used in this formulation to essentially help in the cellular absorption of the above minerals thereby helping derive maximum benefits.
